Master Plan Recommendation:

Historic Preservation Ordinance Criteria

(1) Historical and cultural significance. The historic resource:

- ☒ a. Has character, interest or value as part of the development, heritage or cultural characteristics of the county, state or nation;
- ☐ b. Is the site of a significant historic event;
- ☐ c. Is identified with a person or group of persons who influenced society;
- ☒ d. Exemplifies the cultural economic, social, political or historic heritage of the county and its communities.

(2) Architectural and design significance. The historic resource:

- ☐ a. Embodies the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction;
- ☐ b. Represents the work of a master;
- ☐ c. Possesses high artistic values;
- ☐ d. Represents a significant and distinguishable entity whose components may lack individual distinction; or
- ☐ e. Represents an established and familiar visual feature of the neighborhood, community or county due to its singular physical characteristic or landscape.

Environmental Setting Recommendation:

A 1/4 acre environmental setting (with the cemetery and oak trees at its center) would provide a protective buffer for the site.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Gue Cemetery is located in a field approximately 300 yards north of the William Shaw house at 13601 W. Old Baltimore Road;⁽¹⁾ it is a few yards south and west of a gate separating that field from the one immediately to the north. Although cemetery boundaries are not defined, its present size (based on the location of the gravestones) is approximately 30' x 30' and the site is marked by two large oak trees.

All remaining gravestones and markers appear to belong to members of the William Shaw Family. There are three small rectangular stones (approximately 6"-9" in width and 12"-18" in length) which may have been foot-markers; they are unlettered. Two others, similar in size and shape, are inscribed "J.E.S." and "L.J.S.", respectively. There are also four large stones (approximately 15"-18" in width and 2'-3' in length) with inscriptions; three are intact and one is fragmented. In addition, what appears to be the lower portions of four stones protrude above the ground; each is approximately 15" wide and 2"-3" high.

The intact stones are for William Shaw, his wife Elizabeth, and one of his sons, John Elevine; they read:

"Sacred to the memory of
John Elevine Shaw
Departed this life Mar. 24, 1855 in the 28th year of his life"

"William Shaw
Born July 11, 1804
Died Nov. 24, 1881
Aged 77 Years, 4 months, 13 days"

"Sacred to the memory of Elizabeth
Wife of William Shaw
Departed this life May 17, 1865
in the 56th year of her life"

The fragmented stone is for one of the Shaw daughters, Lucretia:

"Sacred to the memory of
Lucretia M., wife of Harrison D. Darby
Departed this life Dec. 14 1864,
in the 28th year of her life
Never to be forgotten"

7. Description - Gue Cemetery (13/22) - (continuation sheet)

Both Elizabeth and Lucretia's stones have a weeping willow tree carved above the inscriptions.

All of the stones (except one) are laying flat on the ground, at some distance from their bases. William Shaw's is leaning against one of the oak trees marking the site. The stones are weathered, but the inscriptions are legible.

The site has a generally untended appearance, although at this season (winter) it is clear of brush and easily accessible.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Gue Cemetery (more correctly, the Shaw Cemetery) is significant historically as one of the County's nineteenth century family cemeteries, as such, it is part of the history of the settlement of the county. Established in the mid-1800s, the cemetery is situated on 118 acres of a tract known as "Garnkirk" which was conveyed to William Shaw in 1842 by John Griffith.⁽²⁾ When Shaw sold the property in 1869 to Robert S. Suddath, the deed specified "saving and exempting the family burying ground";⁽³⁾ several subsequent deeds also refer to a family graveyard.⁽⁴⁾ Since all the remaining stones appear to be for members of the Shaw family, and the cemetery is mentioned in the conveyance from Shaw to Suddath, it appears that "Gue Cemetery" is a misnomer.

Little is known of William Shaw (1804-1881) except that between 1842 and 1851 he acquired approximately 180 acres of farmland in the area; the census records for the period 1840 to 1880 list his occupation as "farmer".⁽⁵⁾ The two-story, stucco-covered structure south of the cemetery is referred to as the William Shaw House, although it has not been established that William Shaw was the builder.

Married to Elizabeth Fish in 1826, Shaw was the father of 5 children: John Elevine, Lucretia, Julia Ann, William A. and Mary E.; Lucretia and John's gravestones are in the family cemetery, as are those of William Shaw and his wife, Elizabeth. Shaw's brief obituary, printed in the Montgomery County Sentinel for December 2, 1881, lists his place of death as Barnesville.⁽⁶⁾

Research on family cemeteries in Montgomery County indicates that the majority date from the nineteenth century, when it was not uncommon to establish a family burial plot. Only about 70 of the approximately 100 family cemeteries in the county still have any gravestones.⁽⁷⁾ The Gue Cemetery is, therefore, one of a relatively small number of such sites which has (because of its remaining stones) retained a clear link to the family which established it.
